Drugs worth Rs. 390 cr. seized during raid in city

Mumbai Zone 10 DCP reveals details of 192.53 kg Mephedrone drug bust in Mysuru

Datta Nalawade

Mysuru, July 29 (BCT)- In a follow-up to the massive anti-narcotics operation conducted on July 26, the Police have confirmed that the clandestine drug manufacturing unit unearthed in Mysuru was producing Mephedrone (commonly known as MD) worth Rs. 390 crore in the international market.

The raid, executed by the Mumbai Police, with the support of Mysuru Police, had exposed a sophisticated setup hidden inside a vehicle garage along the Ring Road service lane at Belavatha.

The factory was operating from a makeshift blue cement shed concealed behind a vehicle garage on the Ring Road service lane at Belavatha, under Narasimharaja (NR) Police Station limits in Mysuru.

Addressing a press conference in Mumbai yesterday, Deputy Commissioner (Mumbai Zone 10) Datta Nalawade confirmed the haul, stating, "A total of 192.53 kg of Mephedrone worth Rs. 390 crore in the international market was seized from the drug manufacturing unit in Mysuru."

Synthetic stimulant and equipment

Mephedrone (MD) is a synthetic stimulant drug chemically related to cathinone, known for producing effects similar to MDMA and cocaine. Along with the massive drug haul, the Police seized a large cache of raw chemicals, ovens, heaters, containers and distillation equipment used in production.

Eight individuals from Mumbai and Mysuru have been arrested so far in connection with the racket. The operation was executed by the Anti-Narcotics Cell (ANC) of Sakinaka Police Station, Zone 10, Mumbai Police, with assistance from Mysuru Police, the DCP said.

The synthetic drug manufactured in Mysuru was allegedly being supplied on a large scale to Mumbai, Maharashtra and Gujarat.

LOST WONDER: We all lead wonderful lives, often without realising it. Walking through a park we might notice a flower and wonder what its name is. On a street we'll come across a large imposing building, and we'll wonder what it is.

We look at the sky and wonder why it's blue. We sit by the sea and wonder why it's salty when the rivers and rains that feed it are not.

It's all this wondering that makes our lives so wonder-full. But will we soon lose this wonder? An AI device called Meta consists of an ordinary-looking pair of spectacles with a mic attached which tells you whatever you want to know about where you are and what you're looking at.

It will not only tell you the name of the flower that you happen to see, it will also tell you the names of surrounding flowers and plants which, combined, will make an attractive floral arrangement.

Meta will give you the name, height, and other details about the building before you, and tell you why the sky is blue and the sea salty.

And if you want to know where the closest restaurant or mall is, Meta will tell you how to get there.

Wonder how Meta can do all these things? Wonder if Meta is hitched to a cloud of limitless data somewhere in cyberspace? You needn't wonder. Because Meta will tell you how Meta does what it does.

Meta is marvellous. But by being marvellous, it takes the marvellousness, the sense of wonder, out of life.

It's like reading a murder mystery in which the murderer is revealed on Page 1. Or watching a suspense movie, where the cliffhanger end is shown at the start, making everything that comes after literally an anticlimax.

It's our sense of wonder, the small and large mysteries that surround us, which add relish to our lives, like reading a mystery novel or watching a thriller.

Wonder if life would be life without wonder? That's a Meta-physical question even Meta mightn't be able to answer. —Jug Suraiya in The Times of India

Lost tortoise turns up at ice cream parlour

Shillingford Abbot: A tortoise who escaped from her family's home in England was found more than two weeks later outside an ice cream parlour nearly 3 miles from home.

Shelley, a 20-year-old leopard tortoise, escaped from outside her family's home in Shillingford Abbot, near Exeter, on July 9.

The tortoise was spotted 16 days later in a field outside the Orange Elephant ice cream parlour in Kenneford, about 2.8 miles from home.

"She was spotted by the farmer who thought she was a big rock. Luckily, he realised rocks don't usually move and gave us a call," owner Nick Phillips said.

"After being reunited with her owners, and a cheeky ice cream she is now back home safe and sound," the business said.

City overrun by ground squirrels

Minot: The Richardson's ground squirrel weighs less than a pound, is about a foot long and is native to the northern Plains.

The little creature also is a ferocious tunneller, and it's exasperating the people of Minot, North Dakota, where it's burrowing everywhere from vacant lots to the middle of town, and growing more plentiful over the past two decades.

The city is fighting back, but even the pest control guy leading the charge acknowledges that it will be difficult to turn the tide against the rodent.

Joshua Herman said fighting the squirrels is akin to "one guy standing against a massive storm."

Ground squirrels have been an issue in Minot, a city of nearly 50,000 people, for at least 20 years. It's unclear how many of the squirrels live in Minot but it likely nears or even exceeds the city's population.

Reinforce HTV ban on Hunsur Road

Sir,

About two decades ago, following a series of ghastly accidents that claimed the lives of many innocent motorists and left several others seriously injured, a total ban on the movement of Heavy Transport Vehicles (HTVs) was imposed on the stretch of Hunsur Road between St. Joseph's School Junction and the Ring Road Junction.

This ban had a significant impact in improving safety and reducing accidents along this busy section of the road.

However, in recent times, it has been observed that HTVs have once again started plying on this stretch — possibly due to a lack of awareness about the ban or a deliberate attempt to save time and fuel.

Since there are no signboards about the HTV ban on this stretch, it is strongly suggested that the authorities concerned install clear and visible signage at strategic locations, particularly between St. Joseph's School Junction and the Ring Road Junction, stating "HTV Banned."

These signboards should also be placed at all intersections connecting crossroads with Hunsur Road to ensure maximum safety.

Installing these boards will go a long way in creating awareness among HTV drivers and help in reinstating the safety that this stretch once enjoyed.

MDMA racket in city

Seven Police teams mobilised to hunt down drug peddlers

Mysuru, July 29 (SBD,BLU& BCT)- The shocking discovery of an MDMA drug manufacturing unit on Mysuru's outskirts has triggered one of the city's most extensive anti-narcotics crackdowns in recent years.

Since Sunday evening, City Police Commissioner Seema Latkar has personally spearheaded sweeping raids across multiple neighbourhoods, targeting suspected drug peddlers and users.

Simultaneous operations were carried out at 59 locations — including godowns, garages, PG hostels and residences of 35 individuals with prior drug records — spanning Mandi Mohalla, Lashkar Mohalla, N.R. Mohalla, Nazarbad and Udayagiri. The raids uncovered marijuana sales, led to one arrest, and resulted in cases filed against 26 individuals for drug consumption.

Mysuru City Police, led by City Police Commissioner Seema Latkar, checking vehicles on Pulikeshi Road in Mandi Mohalla yesterday.

By Monday, Commissioner Latkar continued leading fresh raids, intensifying checks on vehicles, shops, bars and residential zones. All suspicious vehicles, including two-wheelers, were stopped at entry points to the Narasimharaja Constituency and they were thoroughly checked for drug possession.

Roadside tea stalls and those located in inner areas of Narasimharaja Constituency, parks alleyways and other suspected hotspots remained under strict surveillance as Police teams questioned locals and tracked habitual offenders.

"This is not a one-time effort — it will continue with full force," Seema Latkar told Star of Mysore late last night, confirming that over ten individuals have already been booked for cannabis use.

To break the network fueling Mysuru's narcotics trade, seven Police teams — comprising two DCPs, ACPs, Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors — have been formed. These teams will work overnight, raiding homes of repeat offenders and seizing narcotics in coordinated strikes.

The crackdown follows Saturday's high-profile raid at a shed in Belavatta near the Ring Road service lane, where an illicit drug production hub was unearthed. The incident has not only rattled the city's reputation for peace and safety but also sparked political outrage, with calls for stringent, sustained policing.

Citizens, alarmed by the scale of the drug mafia's operations, have demanded that enforcement should not taper off after initial raids but continue until narcotics sales and consumption are completely eradicated from the city.

'Mysuru's drug mafia your grant?'

R. Ashoka asks Chief Minister Siddaramaiah

Mysuru, July 29 (MK&BCT)- In a blistering political attack, Opposition Leader in the Legislative Assembly R. Ashoka has held Chief Minister Siddaramaiah accountable for the surge of drug mafia activity in Mysuru — his home district.

Responding to a recent remark by his son Dr. Yathindra Siddaramaiah, who said, "Others gave a little, but my father gave more," Ashoka shot back: "Does that mean the drug mafia's growth in Mysuru is your father's contribution?"

Speaking to reporters in Mysuru, Ashoka lashed out at the Congress Government, questioning its failure to curb narcotics despite multiple raids exposing large-scale drug operations.

He pointed out that it was Maharashtra Police — not Karnataka Police — who unearthed the drug racket in Mysuru, calling it an indictment of the State's law enforcement. "What is our Government doing? Under Congress rule, the Home Department has been paralysed. It seems Karnataka no longer has a functioning Home Department," he charged.

Ashoka further alleged that law and order had collapsed under the present regime and called the rise of the drug mafia in the cultural capital a "distressing and shameful development."

Suspended Cops reinstated; disciplinary action pending

B. Dayananda Vikash Kumar H.T. Shekar C. Balakrishna A.K. Girish

Bengaluru, July 29 (BS)- In a major relief to the five top Police officers who were suspended on the charges of dereliction of duty, that claimed 11 lives during the stampede at the premises of M. Chinnaswamy Stadium in Bengaluru on June 4, the Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms (DPAR), has issued an order on Monday revoking their suspension, pending disciplinary action against them as per rules.

The then Police Commissioner B. Dayananda, Additional Police Commissioner Vikash Kumar Vikash, DCP (Central) H.T. Shekar, ACP (Cubbon Park Sub-Division) C. Balakrishna and Inspector of Cubbon Park Station A.K. Girish, are those Police officers who have been reinstated, following the revocation of their suspension order with immediate effect.

A Magisterial inquiry headed by Bengaluru Urban Deputy Commissioner G. Jagadeesha and One-man Judicial Commission headed by retired High Court Justice John Michael D'Cunha have already submitted their probe reports in this regard to the State Government. Amidst this, the suspended Police officers had appealed to the Government to withdraw their suspension order, that was taken into cognisance, the DPAR states further.

Money-doubling racket in Chamarajanagar

Four Policemen, including Sub-Inspector, suspended

Real Cops accused of playing fake Police raid roles

Chamarajanagar, July 29 (SS & KS)- Chamarajanagar Superintendent of Police (SP) Dr. B.T. Kavitha has suspended four Police personnel, including the Sub-Inspector of Cyber, Economic and Narcotics (CEN) Crime Division, for their alleged involvement in a money-doubling racket.

The suspended officers are: SI Ayyana Gowda of CEN Police Station, Constables Mohan, Basavanna and Mahesh of Chamarajanagar Town Police Station.

Modus operandi* of racket

For years, racketeers have been luring wealthy people with promises of 'doubling' their money, taking them to secret places and staging fake Police raids to extort cash. Gang members disguised themselves as Cops, intimidating victims into silence, knowing they would avoid filing complaints due to illegal nature of their transactions.

In this shocking case, however, real Police officers themselves allegedly participated in the crime. One Ansari of Chamarajanagar reportedly lured Sachchidananda, a garment trader from Avinashi, Tamil Nadu, into the scheme. Trusting Ansari, Sachchidananda arrived with Rs. 3 lakh cash and checked into a hotel as instructed.

While in his room, a man in a Police uniform, accompanied by four others, barged in, accused him of illegal activity and seized the cash. They then threatened him, demanding an additional Rs. 1 lakh to avoid legal action.

When he said he only had Rs. 70,000 in his bank account, he was coerced into transferring it online to one Syed Imran. Realising he had been cheated, he later approached Chamarajanagar Town Police Station. A case was registered and Ansari and Syed Imran were arrested.

During the probe, Town Police Inspector Basavaraju examined CCTV footage from the hotel. To his shock, the so-called 'fake Police' in the footage turned out to be SI Ayyana Gowda and Constables Mohan, Basavanna and Mahesh — all serving officers from his own Station.

Inspector Basavaraju immediately reported this to SP Dr. Kavitha, who ordered the immediate suspension of the four personnel and directed their arrest. However, by the time action was initiated, the accused officers had gone into hiding. A search operation is now underway to arrest them.

Drugs worth Rs. 390 crore seized

The racket first came to light in April 2025, when the Police in Kaman, Palghar district, intercepted a peddler with 50 grams of mephedrone. This led to the registration of a case under Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act at Sakinaka Police Station.

Subsequent investigation uncovered a larger network. During initial raids, Police seized 4.053 kg of MD and drug-making equipment worth about Rs. 8.04 crore from Kaman village in Palghar, arresting 3 individuals.

Breakthrough

DCP Datta Nalawade said that the investigation took a decisive turn on July 25 with the arrest of Salim Imtiaz Sheikh alias Salim Langda (45) of Bandra West.

During interrogation, Salim disclosed that he sourced MD drugs from Mysuru. Based on this crucial tip-off, Police traced the supply chain to Mysuru.

Hidden blue shed

Following leads from multiple arrests, a special team led by Senior Inspector Pramod Tawde and Sub-Inspectors Dayanand Valwe and Pankaj Pardeshi, under the guidance of DCP Datta Nalawade and ACP Sampatrao Patil, kept the Mysuru location under discreet watch. They finally zeroed in on a blue cement shed, concealed behind a garage and unnoticeable from outside on the Ring Road, Mysuru.

MDA sites up for grabs

Rakshith said, 'however, no processes will be initiated in relation to the disputed 50:50 sites and incentive sites. The status quo will be maintained as the sites are under probe. It is the prerogative of the State Government to decide on future course of action, after receiving report.'

He also clarified that there is no dispute related to the sites marked for e-auction and people can participate in the bidding, as the procedure will be conducted in a transparent manner.

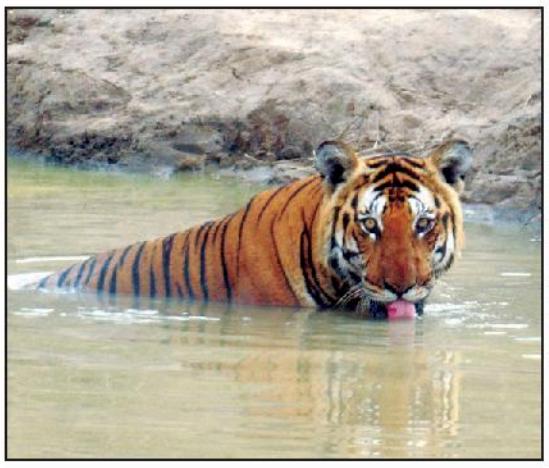
International Tiger Day

Plastic-free Tiger Reserve campaign, plantation of 2,000 seedlings launched



Mysuru, July 29 (MTY&BS)- The Global Tiger Day also known as International Tiger Day is celebrated today across the country, with the Union Minister for Environment, Forest and Climate Change, Bhupender Yadav, inaugurating the celebrations at New Delhi this morning.

The Conservators of Forest (CF) and Deputy Conservators of Forest (DCF) from 57 Tiger Reserves across the country took part in the virtual discussion and threw light on the action taken towards the conservation of tigers and the challenges faced in the realm.

National Tiger Conservation Authority (NTCA) has issued instructions to the CFS and DCFs of all the Tiger Reserve Areas to launch 'plastic free tiger reserve' campaign and to take stern action in this regard. Besides, adequate preparations have been made to launch programme titled 'Ek Ped Ma Ke Naam,' to plant 2,000 indigenous seedlings involving local communities in the buffer areas or adjoining peripheral villages of the tiger reserves, said Dr. P. Ramesh Kumar, CF, Project Tiger.

Though the tiger population is spread over 13 countries of the world, majority of 70 % to 80% among them are in India.

Karnataka that once enjoyed the pride having most number of tigers in its forests, had to cede space for Madhya Pradesh in the Tiger Census conducted in 2018 and 2022, as the latter emerged as No. 1 State having maximum number of Tigers. Now, Karnataka stands second with 563 tigers in the latest Tiger Census conducted in 2022. Bandipur Tiger Reserve, the State's first ever Tiger Reserve spread over Mysuru and Chamarajanagar districts, has 150 tigers, followed by Nagarahole Tiger Reserve - 140, Biligiri Ranganatha Tiger (BRT) Reserve - 37, Bhadra Tiger Reserve in Chikkamagaluru and Shivamogga - 28 and Kali Tiger Reserve in Uttara Kannada - 17. The tiger habitats are also identified in M.M. Hills and Cauvery Wildlife Sanctuaries.

The social forests in the surroundings of Mysuru have also witnessed tiger movements, with about five to six tigers turning these areas into their habitat. Two years ago, the tigers had passed through Chikkakanya, Doddakanya, Byathahalli, Varkod forest, Mahadevapura and Madapura in Srirangapatna and near Bannur.

According to the findings of a survey conducted by Forest Department, tiger habitats have proven advantageous in preventing the illegal felling of trees in forest areas. The trees are integral to the formation of favourable conditions for the occurrence of rainfall, which rejuvenate rivulets and trees, bringing a new lease of life to the rivers.

BJP posts book on Nalwadi to Dr. Yathindra Siddaramaiah

Mysuru, July 29 (DM)- Strongly opposing the statement of Congress MLC Dr. Yathindra Siddaramaiah, who had said that Chief Minister Siddaramaiah had contributed more than the erstwhile Mysore ruler Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar for the development of Mysuru, the City BJP Yuva Morcha on Monday posted books on the life of Nalwadi, to MLC Dr. Yathindra and his father Siddaramaiah, the Chief Minister of the State.

The BJP, workers who gathered at the Main Post Office at Nehru Circle on Ashoka Road, posted the books to the residences of the MLC and the CM.

Addressing the party workers, BJP leader Dinesh Gowda wondered whether Dr. Yathindra was worthy enough to even call the name of Nalwadi.

Pointing out that the book on Nalwadi was posted to Dr. Yathindra so that he can understand the innumerable contributions of the erstwhile Mysore ruler, he asked the MLC to question himself about the contributions made by his father.

He also urged Dr. Yathindra to tender a public apology for his remarks.

BJP Yuva Morcha office-bearers Arjun, Nikhil, Manju, Pankaj, Srinivas, Surya, Praveen Shetty and others were present.

New Delhi, July 29- The 19-year-old Divya Deshmukh beat 38-year-old Koneru Humpy in an all-Indian final to become the first Indian champion of the FIDE Women's Chess World Cup.

WORD OF THE DAY

Facile

Pronunciation: FASS-ul (Adjective)
Meaning: Facile is a formal adjective that is used disapprovingly to describe something that is too simple, or that doesn't show enough thought or effort. Facile can also be used for something done or achieved in a way that is considered too easy or that is easily accomplished or attained. It is sometimes used approvingly, however, for someone or something that works, moves, or performs well and very easily.
Origin: The word's origins provide a major clue and are quite easy to trace: facile glided into English (via Anglo-French) from the Latin adjective facilis, meaning "easy, accommodating, nimble," ultimately from facere, "to make, bring about, perform, do." And indeed, facile can be used as a synonym for easy in some situations, though it is more formal and usually carries with it something extra — namely, excess. Something described as facile, such as an argument, is too easily made or done, as in "offered only facile answers to complex questions," implying undue haste or shallowness. And facile tears are too easily produced by the person shedding them, suggesting they are lacking in sincerity. But although facile often bears a whiff of tut-tutting judgment, such is not always the case: it can be used positively to describe someone who is poised and assured, with an easy grace, as in "a facile lecturer." Similarly, a writer whose words flow easily and fluidly on the page may be said to pen "facile prose."
Example: "For a relatively straightforward hike, there's a lot to hold your interest here. The trail passes an archery range in its second half, at which point the colourful, mounted targets are visible through the trees, as are archers wielding bow and arrow. Walking under the great arches of the 1922 San Rafael Bridge and the 1914 La Loma Bridge adds a touch of drama to an otherwise facile and peaceful hike." —Deborah Vankin, The Los Angeles Times, 23 June 2024.

THE ODD WORD

Routineer

One that adheres to or insists on routine

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Cross That Bridge When You Come To It

Meaning: The phrase "cross that bridge when you come to it" is used to say that you don't need to ponder over a situation until it really happens.
Origin: It was first spotted in Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's The Golden Legend (1851): "Don't cross the bridge till you come to it, is a proverb old and of excellent wit."
Example: "My sister worries too much about what might happen when her kids grow up and move out, so people are always saying "you'll cross that bridge when you come to it" to her."
